Introduction	For the past ten years I have worked as one of the senior leaders of Trinity Life Church, which has its central campus on Upper Tichborne Street in Highfields. We also have campuses in Braunstone, Beaumont Leys and Oadby. I am also a founder and trustee of the compassion charity Open Hands, providing a wide range of services to people in Leicester such as food, meals, furniture, clothes, English classes and a range of courses. I was a teacher in Nottingham primary schools for many years before moving to Leicester and also worked as a Children's Centre teacher for two years. As someone who is very connected to the area, I love being a governor at Sparkenhoe and am very proud of the school's achievements for every child. I am especially interested in the welfare and wellbeing of staff and pupils.
