

Easter Projects and Activities Years 5 and 6

Activity	How to do it	Further ideas
Make your own trading cards based on a topic that you like: football teams, book characters, game characters, food types, Pokemon	Cut squares large enough for a picture and information on. Using a book/the internet or your knowledge about the topic, include different facts or categories about your chosen topic on the card. e.g.  Jamie Vardy  Plays for: Leicester City Football Club  Premier League Goals: 99  Age: 33 years old Include a picture - draw it. Design a front cover for all of the cards.	Play a game of 'Top Trumps' with the cards. Two players or more.            Share out the cards equally and the starting play reads out a certain category.            Whoever's category has the highest points wins the cards for that round. OR Do this activity with a sibling or adult and you can start trading!
Create a collage of your favourite things and words	Using old newspapers/magazines/food packets/your own drawings/words/sentences, cut and stick a variety of your favourite things onto a piece of paper.	Create a collage for a family member. Interview a family member and find out about what their favourite things are. What's your favourite colour?  What's your favourite animal?  Do you have a favourite band?

Create your own board game.

Choose a theme for your game. E.g. pirates

Using a piece of paper, draw out boxes for your pieces to follow along as the game goes on. Then, decorate the board as your chosen theme. Write rewards or consequences in your boxes such as; you found treasure, move forward 2 spaces or you had to walk the plank, go back to the start.

If you do not have a dice to play, make your own!

Draw out this template with the flaps and fold each side to make a cube net.

Draw/paint with your eyes closed	It's as simple as that! Challenge yourself to draw an object or person with your eyes closed. Keep them closed until you are finished. See what you can draw. You'll end up with some pretty funny pictures. Start with a simple house and see how you do.	Have a competition with a sibling or adult to see who can draw the best object/setting/person. Challenge yourself to see if you can improve your drawing each time you do it.
Create a secret code	Turn each letter in the alphabet into a different symbol or letter. a = $  b = £  c = ☺  d = %  e = &gt;  f = ! Write out secret messages using the code. See if someone else can decode it.	Write about a topic that you like using your secret code.
Word Games:	Alphabet Chat  Challenge yourself or others to talk for 1 minutes without using words beginning with an agreed letter of the alphabet. It's harder than you think!	Can you write a paragraph about a topic without using the agreed letter?

Design, build and decorate paper aeroplanes

Using paper, follow the instructions attached to make the plane.

Decorate it how you like.

You could include - a pilot and passengers in their windows. An airline company name.

Cut holes in a piece of paper and see if you can fly your aeroplane through the targets.

How many points can you score?

Create a foil sculpture/ setting	Design your sculpture. E.g. an animal, a beach, a park, a footballer. Use foil to shape the sculpture.  	Hold the sculpture up near the window and draw around the shadow on a piece of paper.
Acts of Kindness Bingo	Think of a number of acts of kindness: e.g. Do the washing up for my family Help an adult make dinner Tidy my room Help my sibling with their work Hang up the washing Let my sibling have a go on the computer Turn them into a bingo card and see how many you can cross out over the next week or two.	Keep a journal of all of the kind things you say and do over the upcoming weeks. It'll be a great thing to read back over. Plus, I'm sure your teacher would love to see it when you get back to school.
